PROFESSOR JAYASHANKAR TELANGANA AGRICULTURAL UNIVERSITY
ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE: RAJENDRANAGAR, HYDERABAD-500 030

1) INTRODUCTION:

The Professor Jayashankar Telangana Agricultural University, PJTAU (formerly Professor Jayashankar Telangana State Agricultural University) was established on 3rd September, 2014 with its headquarters at Rajendranagar, Hyderabad. The nomenclature of the University was amended vide Telangana GO.No.15 w.e.f 21st August 2024. PJTAU is an ISO 9001-2015 certified institute. The University has been accredited by the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR) with grade “A” and recognized by University Grants Commission (UGC) under section 2f as a State Agricultural University and is empowered to award degrees through its various faculties and its constituent colleges in regular mode with the approval of the concerned statutory bodies / councils, wherever required.

The University provides education through eleven constituent Colleges (eight in Agriculture, two in Agricultural Engineering & Technology and one in Community Science). In addition, there are twelve constituent polytechnics (eleven in Agriculture, one in Agricultural Engineering) offering diploma programmes. The University offers 4 UG programmes, 20 PG and 12 Ph.D. programmes. The Post graduate programmes in Agriculture are offered at College of Agriculture Rajendranagar, Agricultural College, Polasa, Jagtial, CAE, Kandi, Sangareddy and College of Community Science, Hyderabad. The University offers the PG students the opportunity to work across agro climatic zones of the State in its 15 Agricultural Research Stations, including three Regional Agricultural Research Stations (RARSs) representing three agro-climatic zones. The University conducts outreach programs transferring research technologies through Nine District Agricultural Advisory and Transfer of Technology Centres (DAATTCs), eight Krishi Vigyan Kendras (KVKs), one each of Extension Education Institute (EEI), Agricultural Information and Communication Centre (AI&CC), Agricultural Technology Information Centre (ATIC) and Electronic Media Wing which gives scope for social science students to conduct real time intervention and impact studies. The PJTAU has productive collaborations with several premier institutes such as ICAR institutes, NRSC, ICRISAT and agri based industry facilitating PG and Ph.D. research under the mentorship of accredited faculty.

PJTAU has strived to build a talented pool of future research leaders and was the first University to admit students through the national level ICAR entrance exam from 2018. The University has achieved national recognition through the NIRF ranking (37th rank among 145 Universities in Agriculture and Allied Sector). Commitment to quality in all work spheres was evidenced by the ISO 9001:2015 for the Administration and ISO 17025:2017 certification for its Pesticide Residue and Quality Control labs. PJTAU also boasts of a an Agritech incubator, Aghub, a section 8 company that nurtures Agri preneurship in emerging tech domain with 95 prospective Start-up ventures. The University also holds the distinction of being first institute in the country to be cleared by the DGCA to carry out research in drone applications in agriculture by establishing a Drone Academy, besides undertaking capacity building of rural youth and other partners in the area.

Dedicated research grants to the tune of Rs 40,000 per PG and Rs 1 lakh per Ph.D. student have been allocated to enable interdisciplinary and problem-solving research since 2019. In addition, currently certain industries are also extending fellowships to the research scholars. The students will also gain from the talks by eminent researchers through the many national and international seminars and conferences that PJTAU organizes and co organizes.

APPENDIX I

Reservation of seats in favour of Local / Non-Local candidates

(In accordance with the A.P Educational Institutions (Regulation of Admissions) Order, 1974.)

- A i) After bifurcation of AP State, a new University namely Professor Jayashankar Telangana State Agricultural University (PJ TSAU) was formed. Admission to 85% of the seats after excluding those reserved for the candidates from outside the State, shall be reserved in favour of and allocated among the local candidates in relation to the local area in respect of the Osmania University.

Among the seats allotted to respective States, the local seats (85%) will be filled by the respective Universities of the respective States. The remaining 15% of unreserved (non-local) seats will be filled in open competition for both the States (as per approval of Govt. of Telangana post cessation of the AP reorganization Act on 2nd June 2024).

While determining the number of seats to be reserved in favour of the local candidates under Sub- para (i) any fraction of a seat shall be counted as one provided that there shall be at least one unreserved seat.

While allocating under Sub-para (i) the reserved seats among the local candidates in relation to the different local areas, fraction of a seat shall be adjusted by counting the greatest fraction as one and if necessary also the greater of the remaining fractions as another, and where the fraction to be so counted cannot be selected by reason of the fractions being equal, the selection shall be made by lot, provided that there shall be at least one seat allocated for local candidates in respect of each local area.

If a local candidate in respect of a local area is not available to fill any seat reserved or allocated in favour of a local candidate in respect of local area, such seat shall be filled as if it had not been reserved.

Local Candidates

1. A candidate for admission to any course of study shall be regarded as a local candidate in relation to a local area:
 - a) If he/she has studied in an educational institution or educational institutions in such local area for a period of not less than four consecutive academic years ending with the academic year in which he/she appeared, or as the case may be, first appeared in the relevant qualifying examination. OR
